Dearest Mother & Daddy:

I received your two letters from Chicago, and am glad all of the folks are well.

Today is Sunday. This morning I went to the dispensery with an ear ache. The doctor washed it out, and put some penncillin in it. Then I went out and played two soft-ball games. I twisted my knee and ankle, got two charley-horses, hit once, two hits-on-error, and made no errors. I was so sore this afternoon I didn't go out to play. We lost two this morning, 6-0 and 5-9, and won 3-4 this afternoon.

It's hot as the devil now, with no rain to cool things off.

Daddy, why don't you want to sell that guy in Chicago 25 grand a week. Larger sales with smaller profits are much better. Right? You ought to take some of those big sales. Right?

I SAW A DARN GOOD SHOW LAST NIGHT, SITTING THROUG A STEADY DRIZZLE OF RAIN. IT WAS BETTY DAVIES IN "THE CORN IS GREEN." HAVE YOU SEEN IT?

BE GOOD & WRITE SOON!

LOVE,

Harold
